

MEDICINAL.

LIGHT AND DARK,

Day and night, sunshine and shadow are not more different from each other than a healthful from a sickly woman. The healthful woman carries light and sunshine with her wherever she goes.

The woman who suffers from ill-health casts a shadow on her own happiness and the happiness of others. She cannot help it. Those who suffer cannot smile and sing.

Ill-health in woman is generally traceable to disease of the delicate womanly organism. Many women have been restored to happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I feel it my duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, of 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine for this or that complaint as my troubles became unbearable. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and then I did not take any more for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not cross and irritable, and I have a good color; my face has also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand of comfort for I am a new woman once more."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PRINCE OF WALES.
The determination of King Edward to confer the title of Prince of Wales on the Duke of York meets with general approval on the part of the English people, who fondly expected that the title would have passed to the King's son on the father's accession. The announcement that the title will pass to the Duke when he returns to England from his tour of the British colonies explains in part the delay in the formal transfer.

It is a fact quite well known to members of the nobility that King Edward and his son have not always dwelt in harmony, and the Duke of York has been known as an independent if not a willful son.

The tour of the colonies has brought out such spontaneous approval of the Duke from British subjects that the joy of the father has been unceasing. The young man has been tried out, and so emphatic has been the endorsement of the people that Edward could no longer withhold the semi-public announcement of his gratification.

The title of Prince of Wales, contrary to general opinion at the time of the late Queen's death, does not pass to her apparent upon a change of sovereigns. It is conferred by patent. The Dukedom of Cornwall passes at birth to an heir apparent born during the reign of his parents.

The ceremony of conferring the new title will consist in the girding on of the sword and the delivery of a cap, a ring and a golden staff by his royal parents. The insignia of the principality, besides the coronet and mantle, are the three feathers, ostrich plumes. The creation of the eldest son of the King Prince of Wales originated in 1337 with Edward III.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.—The King's Daughters finished their State convention duties at Suffolk yesterday and adjourned to meet next year at Roanoke. These officers were elected: Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, Richmond, State secretary; Mrs. Julia C. McPhail, Richmond, recording secretary; Mrs. Gates McAlpin Platon, Portsmouth, treasurer; Miss Nina Wilcox, Charles City county, Mrs. Frank T. Washington, London Bridge; Miss M. Regart Roper, Norfolk; Mrs. L. B. Janney, Richmond; Miss Amelia Shepard, Warrenton; Mrs. R. A. Mapp, Princess Anne county, executive board.

Mrs. Barton read a short address accepting the office of State secretary. A telegram of greeting was received from the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which is in session at Norfolk. In response to a query in the question box, "Can a Jewess become a member?" Mrs. Davis, international secretary ruled that she could, by accepting the order's constitution.

THE DUKE TALKED WITH INDIANS.
The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York bade farewell to Vancouver yesterday. They came over from Victoria on the steamer Empress of India yesterday escorted by five ships from the naval station at Esquimaux. The local militia turned out as a guard of honor and a number of hands were at the wharf. By special direction of his royal highness, the Indian musicians were brought to him, and he talked to them through an interpreter for half an hour, shaking hands with each to the intense delight of the Indians, who wore animal skin, feathers, and had their faces painted. The party then entered their train. An immense crowd gathered at the station to see the last of the royal party. The people pressed so near to the party as the ropes would permit and cheered as the train moved out, all hands playing "God Save the King," the duke standing on the rear platform at salute and the duchess bowing and smiling.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Cough or Cold at once. Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough and Measles Cough without fail. Best for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia, Consumption and Lung Affections. Gives quick, sure results. Price 35c. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Elys's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Droppers or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Elys Brothers, 56 Warren st., N. Y.
